THE MINISTER OF CIVIL AVIATION (SHRI SHARAD YADAV): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. Some of the flights during phase II (return journey) of Haj operations were delayed due to various reasons. Some of them are as under:—

(i) The Charter Operator could not sustain the schedule due to an initial engineering snag; (ii) Extreme congestion conditions at the Haj Terminal at Jeddah. (iii) The directive of Saudi Authorities to use the Haj Terminal also for the departure of scheduled flights.

(iv) Only four counters were being allocated to Air India and that too intermittently for about two hours at a time.

(v) The complete contingent of support staff from India could not be put in position in time because of the delay in the issuance of visa by the Saudi Authorities.

(vi) A majority of Haj passengers report at the check-in counter with excess baggage which not only contributes to the congestion but also slows down the entire process of checking-in the passengers.
